

Thus, be bold about these facts, you are without fault or guilt, holy, unproveable and unblameable. You are a recipient of the gift of righteousness.

By believing the gospel, you received his righteousness, the ability to stand before God, our father without (a sense of) fault, guilt, sin, shame, weakness or inferiority.

Romans 10:10

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness: and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

You will glorify the father by confessing these facts.

Think about it. Speak, sing about and pray with this!

Salvation is God's gift to the believer in Christ Jesus.

Romans 5:8

But God commended his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

It depicts his love.

John 3:16

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life.

The knowledge of (about) God is salvation's greatest gift to us.

John 17:3

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

Righteousness is one of such knowledge every believer must have.

Philemon 1:6

That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

The believer will be effective based on the knowledge of God's word that he has and ability to appropriate what is won in Christ and therefore in him (the believer).

The first mention of righteousness is in Genesis 15:6 And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness. Abraham "believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness", that means righteousness is an outcome of believing the Lord. Righteousness means to do right, set right, to be in the right, it also implies to be without guilt or fault.

Moreso, Genesis 15:6 is further explained in the epistles, Romans 4:3-5:

For what saith the scripture? for Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith if counted for righteousness.

Righteousness is a result of faith in Christ, Christ is the one who justifies the ungodly. Abraham was a sinner who received justification, same as the believer in Christ.

Romans 4:25

Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

Romans 5:1

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

By faith in the gospel, you are declared righteous, by faith in the gospel you are without fault or guilt before God. Therefore, there cannot be an unrighteous believer.

Romans 5:15-18

But not as the offence, so also is the Free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as by the offence of one if art came upon all men to condemnation: even so by the righteousness of one the gift came upon all men unto justification of life

Righteousness is a gift, freely given It is never earned, reached or achieved.

It is received in salvation.

Therefore, the believer should live in this consciousness DAILY, he is righteous, without fault or guilt.

Ephesians 1:4

According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:

You are without blame before him.

Colossians 1:22

In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight

Before God, you are holy, unprovable and unblameable.
