

The greater one in us puts us over; therefore, we must see fear for what it is, clearly. Fear is the satanic "way-maker" that paves the way before trouble comes, birthed in worry/ anxiety and doubt. One thing to note is that the sting of fear is paralyzed in Christ Jesus.

Hebrews 2:15

And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

2 Timothy 1:7

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. In the gift of Christ comes love, power, and a sound mind. In love, fear is absent.

1 John 4:18

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. Thus, we are to refuse to fear today's and yesterday's issues as well as tomorrow's unpredictability. We are to take our stand in Christ, be strong in the power of his might, and boldly affirm that THERE IS NO FEAR HERE.

Hebrews 13:5-6

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

Those who give up in life lose. Those who stay to the end will often see a result. Stay in the fight, and you will come out victorious. You must remember that you started from the point of victory.

Have you been blessed by this?
Would you like to ask questions?
Kindly reach out to us.
We look forward to receiving you!

connect with us

585 210 5038

supernaturalcommunity
church@gmail.com

Follow us on:

Supernatural
Community Church

Supernatural
Community Church

Our messages are available on:

SOUNDCLOUD

SPOTIFY

APPLE PODCAST

OVERCOMING FEAR & WORRY

We must learn to deal with fear,

We must learn
to deal
with fear,

We must learn
to deal
with fear,

We must learn
to deal
with
fear,

We must learn to deal with fear, worry, anxiety, and depression from God's word. God's word supersedes our experiences and everything that we think about. Take a look at Paul and Silas:

Acts 16:19-25
And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, 20 and brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 and teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. 22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: 24 who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. 25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

Paul and Silas were going to preach, and they encountered a challenge after casting out a demon from someone who was possessed. They were arrested for doing the Lord's work, which led to them being persecuted and imprisoned. This would have been the time to lose hope and confidence, yet they instead prayed and sang praises to the Lord. Rather than being anxious, worried, or depressed in dire situations, there are two spiritual activities that one must respond with: prayer and praise unto the Lord. When worried, anxious, or depressed, do you pray or sing unto the Lord? Though it may be the most difficult thing to do at that moment, it is the antidote to worries, fears, and anxiety.

Philippians 4:6 (NKJV)
Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God;

When you are anxious about a situation, it means you have not yet made a request to God in prayer for it. Anxiety is proof that you are the one trying to handle things yourself. The moment we pray about something, we are transferring ownership of those issues, challenges, or situations to God. Praying about a situation means that you are trusting in the power of God to handle the challenge instead of depending on your understanding.

Your Life Matters
Let's see Hezekiah in Isaiah 38:18-19, For the grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee: They that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth. 19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: The father to the children shall make known thy truth. Matthew 6:25
Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

We must understand that nothing matters in life more than life itself. The fact that you are still alive today is cause for hope. Without life, you would be unable to worry about having food, clothes, money, and all of its other affairs. This in itself is a cause to be grateful and expectant for what's next to come. Every day beckons an opportunity and another chance. That you failed yesterday doesn't mean that you cannot start again. So don't assume failure too quickly.

Miracles are possible for you because you have life.

Luke 12:15
And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

Your life is worth more than the things that you do or don't possess.

YOUR ATTITUDE MATTERS
Does your circumstance or situation dictate your character? Commit yourself to keeping a positive attitude despite the situations that life brings. Remember, the fact that you are alive today means you can believe in God, that there is hope, and most of all, there is a miracle that can still happen. Have that as your confidence and refrain from grumbling in times of trouble.

Philippians 2:14
Do all things without murmurings and disputings: 1 Thessalonians 5:18
In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

Let's see Jesus, John 6:11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

Jesus gave thanks in lack. He gave thanks for the little that he had. When you are in that lack, do you say "Lord, I thank you," or do you complain? There are things to be grateful for. Even though things might not have worked out in the past, you can keep an attitude that is hopeful for the future. Instead of entering that state of murmuring, complaining, or grumbling, have an attitude of thanks to the Lord. Thank him for the day, for your life, and even for being able to read this material.

1 Timothy 6:6-8
But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. 8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. As a believer, you can learn to be content.

YOUR WORDS MATTER
God's word has never failed; you must stay in faith. Remember, you started from the point of victory. Running from challenges or buckling under pressure is a practice of your past. There is something in the spirit of a believer that doesn't give up. You are born of God, and you must remind yourself always that the greater one lives in you. Learn to see fear as a tool of the devil, and it births worry, anxiety, and doubt. These things are not of God. When you see a challenge, you remind yourself that his word will not fail in your life. It has never failed before, and it will not start with you. Remember that there are things to be thankful for. So, start today, dear believer, use your words and cast out those fears, worries, and anxiety, be full of thanks. Speak your identity and the prophecies in God's word. Speaking God's word brings your true reality into your consciousness, overpowering your problems.

2 Timothy 1:7
For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. 2 Corinthians 2:14
Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

Say today: "I don't have the spirit of fear." "I triumph always." God's word works, and you must keep holding to God's word. You stay full of faith. You win all the time. It's a fight with words.

There's a quote by the US Navy SEAL that's quite instructive here: "I will not quit. I persevere in and thrive in adversity. If knocked down, I will get back up every time. I'm never out of the fight." This ought to be the believer's attitude: we know we win, we know we are more than conquerors, we know, so we stay in the fight. It's not over till we win. If there is are symptoms in our bodies?

We stay in the faith and fight till we are healed. If there is a lack, and debts are growing? We keep the switch of faith turned on, not discouraged from doing more business transactions and trying more opportunities. We expect miracles. He is our shepherd; he leads and guides us.

Psalms 23:1
The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. When things go awry in ministry? We keep preaching, teaching, reaching out, trusting God for His wisdom, direction, and a mighty harvest. It is just like Paul said in 2 Timothy 4:7, I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

“
We are winners We don't run from the fight We don't quake at challenges or balk under pressure We don't give up We are from God, we overcome the world.

