

NOW WHAT?

In conclusion, from the very beginning, God has used men to reach the nations. From Genesis, it is to men whom he entrusted his message, and not any kind of man; he entrusted it to the believer.

These men weren't born with supernatural abilities, but it is through their faith and belief in God that they were able to do all the things they did, and now it is your turn. It may feel odd at first and even scary, but we must know that we carry God's spirit and therefore have nothing to fear.

As you get yourself ready to reach the nations, rest assured and be bold and confident in the power of salvation we carry via the gospel. Know that you have been sent, that God has called and appointed you as a minister of the word. Stop waiting for the perfect moment; The moment is now. Rise with passion, with purpose, and with power. Go into the world and preach the gospel. The nations are not far away. They are right next to you.

Are you reaching
THE NATIONS?

REACHING THE NATIONS

Habakkuk 2:14
For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

From the beginning, God has had one plan: to fill the earth with His glory. This plan will be fulfilled through people filled with God's spirit walking in His purpose and carrying out His assignment. The bible is a compilation of the stories of people who walked with God and either fulfilled His plan or not.

Ephesians 1:13-14
In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

From the very beginning, God has always had the intention of walking and working with humanity. This is why he gives us His Spirit.

You have been sent

2 Corinthians 5:18-22
And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation. 19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. 20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

In receiving the Spirit, you received a ministry of reconciliation, so that you too may be an ambassador for Christ. This means that as believers, we have all been sent. You might be wondering: where to? Jesus gave every believer the Great Commission.

Matthew 28:18-20
And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. 19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: 20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Jesus sends out all His disciples to go and teach all the nations. This isn't just a distant mission. It's personal. It's for all of us, right here, right now. Jesus didn't give this instruction just to church leaders; he gave it to every believer. It is a personal responsibility and an urgent assignment. As believers, we are all missionaries, entrusted by Christ Himself with the greatest message the world has ever known: the gospel of salvation.

This calling is not optional or reserved for a select few; it is for every believer. Therefore, those to whom we have been sent are the nations of the world. We have been sent to the lost, the unserious Christian, the confused agnostic, and the atheist.

Mark 16:15
And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Jesus said, “Go into all the world.” That means where people are. It’s a clear instruction. Not a suggestion.

HOW WILL THIS BE DONE?

Jesus instructed us to “Go!” That means leave your bed, leave your comfort zone, and go out and preach. The moment he resurrected, the instruction was clear. REACH EVERYONE. Preach the gospel everywhere you find yourself. Jesus gave us no restrictions on whom we can share the Gospel with, meaning that any ground on which you stand is an avenue to preach the gospel and reach the nations.

Mark 16:20
And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

This implies that they left their houses and went elsewhere to preach Jesus. It implies that they were obedient to the lord's instructions, and they went everywhere: the nearby stores, schools, and hospitals. Wherever people were, so were the disciples of Jesus.

WHY DO WE GO?

We go because of the urgency of the matter. There is a strong urgency in the land to do more for the gospel. There is a strong burden that needs to fill our hearts for preaching and reaching men with the gospel. We know that the will of God is for all men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. For that to happen, we must go.

Ezekiel 33:11
Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

1 Timothy 2:3-4
For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior. 4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

That means there is an urgency; we don't want to see any man perish. A man who hasn't believed the Gospel will perish. Hence, we must go earnestly towards those people to share the Gospel with them. God doesn't take pleasure in the death of the wicked, and he has given every believer the responsibility to proclaim the Gospel to everyone. We should therefore have a sense of urgency not to see people perish. Practically, anyone who isn't saved who lives near you (maybe your roommate or a family member) is your responsibility. Always ask, who can I reach today? Who around me hasn't heard the gospel? What's stopping me from sharing the love of Jesus right now? Now pray, then go towards them, call them, depending on where they are, and share with them the Gospel so that they too may be saved.

Luke 19:10
For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

Saving the lost is the responsibility that has been given to us who believe and have come to the light of God's word. There is a strong urgency to reach men in all places. It is not the will of God that men will die. We have the responsibility of sharing the gospel with every man, teaching them the word of God, and discipling them. That is the grace we have received through our belief. The grace of serving Him and with Him.

WHERE DO YOU BEGIN?

Acts 1:8
But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

In reaching the nations, you don't have to travel the world to reach men. Reaching men starts with talking to your next-door neighbor, talking to those in your apartment complex. You start preaching the gospel from where you are. You start from your city, and from there you will reach the world. The disciples started preaching in Jerusalem, and from there they went to all the corners of the world. In the work of reaching the nation, there will always be a starting point, and that point starts with you. Your neighborhood, your workplace, your school, the airport, the marketplace, the bus station, etc. Wherever people are, there are unsaved souls to reach. It's important to understand that the lost that we are trying to save are not far from us.

They aren't in some distant land but rather in the very proximities of our lives. Your friends, family members, and those who haven't believed in the gospel are all viable candidates to whom you can go to preach. The scriptures command us to go! Therefore, you have to go! You cannot sit at home and obey the Lord's instructions. You have to stand up and hit the streets.

WHAT ARE THE NATIONS?

Matthew 28:19
Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

The word “Nations” implies people bound by the same practice. For example, people bound by drug abuse or sexual immorality are a nation. People bound by alcoholism are a nation—people in high school, middle school, university, etc. “Nations” can also be people from the same tribe; those sharing the same language; having the same careers; sharing the same theological views & beliefs, etc. Nations can also include race. Black people are a nation. White people are a nation. Latinos are a nation. Nations don't necessarily mean countries; it is people bound together by the same practice. You can find a nation in a school. It can be those in their freshman year, sophomore year, junior year, senior year, or those in sororities and fraternities. It can be those working at local shops, serving in the military, wearing police uniforms, playing for a sports team, or serving time in prisons. Wherever you are standing right now is a place the gospel can reach. You carry the Spirit of God with you, and that means you have the ability to reach men. When it says to go out and preach to all the nations, it's not far from you. JESUS SHOWED US HOW.

Matthew 3:13
Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

Acts 10: 36-38
The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) 37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

Every ministry begins from somewhere. Jesus's ministry began in Galilee. The scriptures show that he went about healing the sick by praying for them. Jesus was reaching the nations in the very place where he was baptized. The particularity of Galilee was that it was the city where both the Jews and the Gentiles lived. This means that Jesus wasn't restricted to a particular people. He started in Galilee to show that the gospel was for everyone. Jesus preached to all people.

Through tracking Jesus's ministry, we can see that his ministry was for all, meaning he did not die just for the Jews alone or specific people; he died for everybody. In reaching the nations, you must start from one place and from there reach the outer parts of the world. It begins where you are. It's from where you stand, your location, your city, your state, to the whole world.

WHAT IS THE END GOAL?

The end goal of reaching the nations is that as you preach to them, people will receive the gospel and grow in the knowledge of the word so that they, too, may do the same. In reaching the nations, we will impart people with the spirit of God, and we will lead them to lead others in following God's plan for their lives. Reaching the nations is a rigorous and challenging mission, one that will only be complete once the Gospel has been spread out, and henceforth the Glory of God shall fill the whole earth.
