

If you don't want to be in the dark, then you must pray to know, see, and lay hold of the plans and purposes of God in your days. A consciousness of the fact that Satan will indeed make repeated attempts to derail us should make us extra watchful. The weight of prophecies over our lives should cause us to sit and to pray. Many have received so many prophecies in our lives; it should cause us to pray. We should go and pick them and pray over them. Many of us have a lot of prophecies in our hands, but we are very careless. Many of us are destined for greatness and have a great future. So what we do is to try naturally, to make everything right. But we mustn't do that alone. We must also pray.

1 Timothy 1:18

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

When prophecies are over our lives, it is not just to have them over our lives; it is for us to wage a warfare. Some have been told they would be great, but it does not mean being an expert in a professional field, but rather fulfilling God's plan. We would only fulfil it in the place of prayer. There are so many things the Lord wants to do on Earth, and he would only do them through men, who must be yielding to prayer.

The words of God to you are for you to war with, and for you to ensure that they come into manifestation. You wage war with these words because you believe them. The resultant effect of Jesus praying for Peter led to three thousand men being saved through him. That shows that the word Jesus told him, "Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men," came to pass. Jesus said, "I have prayed for thee."

Luke 22:31-32

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:
32 but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren Jesus' prayer made strength available for Peter, and it not only benefited him but also others.

Acts 2:14

But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

He was bold enough to stand up amongst people to preach to them.

Acts 2:38-41

Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. 39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.
40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.
41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

Many of those who were there received salvation as a result of his words. Thus, we can say he walked in the fulfillment of prophecy. Just as Jesus had told him, he would catch men; he eventually did, and that was because Jesus PRAYED for him. Therefore, we must ask ourselves,
Are we serious about what God has said?
Are we devoted and consecrated to what God has said?
Are we as desperate to fulfill God's plan as the devil is to stop us from fulfilling it?
The weight of prophecies upon our lives should cause us to sit up and give ourselves even much more to prayer. So we must PRAY!
A life that is lived in fulfillment of God's plan and purposes is a life that is lived in faith. Faith doesn't take cognizance of prevailing circumstances; rather, it takes cognizance of the faithfulness of God. Faith remembers prophecies. The warfare to wage is the warfare of faith in the words that God has spoken to you. Troubles, trials, sicknesses, oppressions, and tribulations come to all men because we live in the world. Indeed, circumstances will test you with these things, to make you think and behave contrary to what God has said. But no, don't give in to what situations are speaking to you; instead, speak back to the situation. Stay in faith in God's plan for your life by staying in prayer, while speaking and meditating upon his words.

When God's word has been spoken to you, that's the plan of God for your life. You must take in these words, pray over them, allow them to take root; daily speak them, meditate on them, and create vivid imaginations over them. In the name of Jesus, as you read this, a lot would be coming to you: reminders, pictures, words would be flashing through your mind. You begin to remember prophecies, and from this moment they come to pass. Amen!

PROPHECIES,
PRAYER,
AND YOU!

Prophecies reveal God's plan for our lives. The written word of God, coupled with proclaimed words via prophecies of men of God and utterances, is the revelation of God's plan to you. Your faith in the plan of God for your life will be seen in your response and attitude to these words, prophecies, and utterances.

Luke 5:10

and so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

From the onset of the relationship that Jesus had with Peter, he told him a word, “Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.” Jesus spoke via prophecy to Peter concerning the role that he would play in His work. This encounter was very vital, as it birthed forth Peter’s assignment, calling, and purpose for his life, being to catch men, instead of fish. As mentioned above, prophecies reveal God’s plan for our lives by charting a course for what God would do in our lives.

From a young age, to now, many of us have received words concerning our lives. Then discouragement, family, life challenges, academics, and even heartbreak, deter those words from coming to pass. We must be smart, as Satan seeks to hinder prophecies from coming to pass and will often use those mechanisms to distract us. Despite those hindrances, because there is a prophecy over your life, there is something God wants to do in your life. As humans and even believers, we have a greater purpose on this earth beyond our natural achievements and ambitions. We are not ordinary. There is such a thing as God’s plan and purpose for our lives. What is God’s plan from the beginning? It is to fill the earth with his glory.

Habakkuk 2:14

For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

As believers, our responsibility in this plan is to spread and preach the word so that all men come to the knowledge of the truth.

1 Timothy 2:3-4

For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; 4 who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

God wants all men to come to the light of his word. He plans to accomplish his plan through the lives of men, making them crucial factors in fulfilling God’s plan on earth. God’s method on Earth is men. An opposition to the plan of God is Satan. His plan is to stop God’s work on earth, and he uses different methods to accomplish that. Just as God’s method is men, Satan also uses men to hinder God’s plan. This has been his pattern from the beginning, starting with Adam and Eve.

Genesis 3:1-4

Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? 2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: 3 but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. 4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

He came with deceptive words to thwart God’s plan.

The same thing also happened to Peter as well..

Luke 5:10

And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

Jesus already told him that he would catch men. When it was time for the fulfillment of the prophecies to come, the devil came again to hinder this from happening.

The prophecies that Peter had received were what attracted the devil's attention to him. The devil will always go where prophecies are, because it creates an awareness that God wants to do something significant through us. We must take the prophecies in our lives seriously. Whether the prophecies of things we have heard to those found in God’s word, they are all things that we should walk in. We must ask ourselves, are we serious about what God has said? The weight of prophecies over our lives should cause us to sit and to pray. Maybe you have received prophecies about things that you would one day do for God, or the work of ministry. We must ensure we pick them up and pray for them to come to pass. Peter was truly determined to follow Jesus. He even swore that he would never betray Jesus.

Luke 22:33

And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

This is similar to many of us who have a heart for God; we want to serve him, but it seems as though something is hindering that from happening. We must be aware that following God is a supernatural work. Many of us desire to serve God and be better in our Christian walk. Though that is our desire, Satan also desires to hinder us from accomplishing that. Therefore, we must not follow God and be a Christian by mere boasting of our words.

Luke 22:31-32

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: 32 but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren

Satan desired to sift Peter as wheat and make him fail, but Jesus prayed for him. We must also pray concerning our desires, concerning prophecies received in our lives. The walk with God is a supernatural one, and we must bear this consciousness.. Desiring or saying “Lord, I will follow you,” “Lord, I will serve you,” or “Lord, I want to come to church more,” alone is not enough. They must be backed in prayer, else the devil's desires would come to pass. For this reason, a believer cannot do without prayer. Jesus depended so much on prayer. There was nothing he did in ministry without praying. Even as he was baptized, he was still found praying.

Luke 3:21

Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

The birth of Jesus also required prayers. For Jesus to be incarnated, people prayed.

Luke 2:36-37

And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity; 37 and she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

We cannot fulfill God's plan for our lives without prayer. This is a hard truth to learn. Though it is laborious and something our flesh wouldn't choose to do on its own, we must pray for God’s word to be fulfilled. God's plan would only be revealed to a man in the place of prayer. We cannot carry out God’s plan for our lives if we are not prayerful. The reason we tend to be lax or have a disdain towards prayer is also one of the devil's methods to hinder us from being effective and playing our role in God’s plan.

We have established that God wants all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

1 Timothy 2:3-4

For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; 4 who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

For an unbeliever to be saved, we have to pray. The reason they do not believe in the first place is due to the devil hindering them from believing.

2 Corinthians 4:3-4

But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: 4 in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Many are passionate about the wrong things today, and that is because of a prayer gap. Therefore, to reach out to more men and have God's plan fulfilled on Earth, we must be prayerful. The scriptures instruct us to pray always with all prayers. That shows we can pray about anything and everything.

Ephesians 6:18

praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; Prayer is trusting God and believing in his supernatural hand. Therefore, we must pray! The prophecies that Peter had received were what attracted the devil's attention to him. The devil will always go where prophecies are, because it creates an awareness that God wants to do something significant through us. God has chosen to make us a crucial factor in the fulfillment of His plan on the Earth; therefore, we ought to respond with a heightened sense of responsibility. Our carelessness and lack of watchfulness can make us prey to the evil plans of Satan. If we allow Satan to succeed in weakening and sifting us, like he sought to do with Peter, we will make ourselves a hindrance to God's plan. When it comes to prophecies, there are things to learn from the life and ministry of Jesus.

The incarnation, the resurrection, and the giving of the Spirit are God's greatest works on Earth. In fulfilling this work, we see exactly how God's work is done. The plan was first revealed to the prophets, who then prophesied it. It was not that God just randomly chose the prophets that He revealed His plans to; there was something about these men that made God reveal His plans to them.

In 1 Peter 1:10-12, Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

Peter made us see that the prophets enquired diligently to know God's plan, and God responded to their diligent search with revelation. Thus, they laid out the information by diligently searching for it. The same applies even today. There is a posture that a man must assume for him to receive divine revelation and information. Like the Prophet Habakkuk said, there is such a thing as standing upon our watch, to see and hear what God wants to reveal (Habakkuk 2:1-2). While God is always eager to reveal His plans to us, we still have to receive it to walk in it. He will not impose it on us unless we earnestly desire to receive it. When Jesus was born, two individuals stood out, namely Anna and Simeon. Luke records that Anna devoted all her life to praying and fasting daily in the temple. When Jesus was brought into the temple, she recognized him as the Redeemer, because it must have been revealed to her in her times of prayer. The same is true of Simeon, also. Both of them had supernatural information about Jesus because they had been "waiting" on the Lord. There is no way we can position ourselves to partner with God in His work unless we are aware of what He is doing, and there is no way we would have this awareness unless He reveals it to us. Simeon and Anna both show us that this revelation is a response to prayer.
