

4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. David was 30 years old, and at his age, he ruled for 40 years. He ruled for 7 years in Hebron over Judah and 33 years in Jerusalem over Israel.

(iv) Timothy
2 Timothy 4:12

Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

Timothy was a young disciple of Paul. Though he was young, he led the whole church of Ephesus. He was entrusted with leadership, and he was able to endure hardship and pressure. You are never too young or too old to serve God. Age is not a limitation to burning passionately for Him. You're not too young to be committed or devoted to His Word. The Spirit of God within you empowers you to stay on fire for Him. Don't quit. Don't let the pressures of life, the pursuit of money, or the demands of your job quench that fire. It's the Spirit of God in you that sustains your flame—keep burning. The Spirit of God within you ignites a fervent fire—it fuels your passion, renews your strength, and keeps you ablaze. Don't trade that fire for worldly distractions or negative influences. Guard your heart diligently. Protect it from anything or anyone that dims your flame for God. Deep down, you know what's pulling you away from fully serving Him. Now is the time to let go of those things, embrace the Spirit already at work within you, and BURN for God.

Have you been blessed by this?
Would you like to ask questions?
Kindly reach out to us.
We look forward to receiving you!

connect with us

585 210 5038

supernaturalcommunity church@gmail.com

Follow us on:

Supernatural
Community Church

Supernatural
Community Church

Our messages are available on:

SOUNDCLOUD

SPOTIFY

APPLE PODCAST

Not too young to BURN

Genesis 1:26-28

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

From the very beginning, God created man with a purpose. He created man in his image and to function as such. Image here means a representation of an unseen being. The use of the word “image” is not indicative of a picture or photograph. The meaning is not to be in his image physically, but rather wholistically in being; to do as God would. The word “likeness” refers to a pattern. God wants to do something on earth, and He created man to do it; He created man to function like Him. Therefore, the born-again man is God’s representative on earth. Your identity as a man who is born again is found in the God who created you. You were born for a purpose, an assignment. A man who is not born again does not yet have a purpose. But once he receives the life of Christ, he is born again, and he comes into purpose. From the moment man enters into the image of God, he enters into a preordained assignment. Man was created to be fruitful, to increase, multiply, replenish, and subdue the Earth. The believer who is in the image of God has been tasked with the responsibility of increasing and multiplying God’s kingdom.

Habakkuk 2:14

For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

God's plan is for all creation to come to the knowledge of who he is. For this to happen, he will use us to accomplish the task. Therefore, multiplying, being fruitful, and increasing are relative to winning lives for Christ.

Ephesians 2:10

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

The born-again man must live a purpose-filled life, and that life began upon salvation. As believers, we are preordained for a purpose and born with an assignment. You must be conscious of this fact as a believer. A lack of consciousness would lead to not fulfilling one's purpose and, subsequently, an identity crisis. A quote by Myles Monroe says, “When the purpose of a thing is unknown, abuse will be inevitable”. A man who doesn't know his true identity will not be able to function in his identity. This is a man’s identity from the very beginning. A man who is born again can function in the image and likeness of God, and that is God’s plan for the earth.

Leviticus 6:8-13

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: It is the burnt offering, because of the burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.
10 And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place.
12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings.
13 The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

God gave Moses an instruction to keep the fire burning on the altar continually. God said that the fire on the altar must never go out. That is the same for the believer today. As a born-again man, the believer now must ensure that their fire for God and spiritual things is continuously burning.

1 Corinthians 3:16

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

The altar of God’s spirit is already in us because we are the temple of the living God. Therefore, based on the instruction in the scriptures, our fire must keep burning on our altar; it must never go out. This signifies a life that is fervent, with zeal. We have an instruction in our lives to keep our fire burning. God does not want us to be lukewarm believers, where you are cold one day, and hot the next. The life of the spirit of God in you is a life of passion, fire, and consistency. To be on fire is to boil and to be hot. God has nothing to do with a lukewarm Christian.

Revelation 3:16

So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

A believer must be burning at all times. A useful believer is one who is on fire and passionate about the things of God. Jesus has no use for a man who’s not on fire, so you cannot be a believer who lacks passion for the things of God. God wants passionate believers, no matter your age. To burn for the Lord means to remain fervent, zealous, and always boiling. Like water that is boiling on a hot stove, the believer must be burning.

Romans 12:11

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; This shows that you have a responsibility to remain fervent always.

Fervent in prayer, as a member of your local church, in the study of God’s word, and in spreading the good news of Christ. To be fervent is to constantly burn. The believer can never be too young to burn. You are not too young to burn for or serve the Lord. The scriptures are replete with examples of people who burned for the Lord. As believers, we must take clues from the scripture and emulate good examples.

Let’s look at a few people in the scriptures who burned for God

(i) Jesus

Luke 2:42-46

And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the Feast.
43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and His mother knew not of it.
44 But they, supposing Him to have been in the company, went a day’s journey; and they sought Him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances.
45 And when they found Him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking Him.

46 And it came to pass that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them and asking them questions.

This was Jesus at the age of 12, and he was found around the temple asking questions. Not only that, he was found praying, healing the sick, or performing miracles.

Matthew 26:39

And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.

Matthew 8:1-3

When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.
2 And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

Luke 9:10-17

And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done.
And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.
11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.
12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.
13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.
14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.
15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.
16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.
17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

(ii) Josiah

2 Kings 22:1

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath.

Josiah was about eight years old when he became a king and ruled the nation of Jerusalem for 31 years.

(iii) David

2 Samuel 5:1-4

Then came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.
2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.
3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.