

3. It produces holiness

God's desire is not just to save us but to transform us into the image of Christ. That transformation happens through consistent submission to God's Word. When you obey God's instructions, even when it's difficult, you are being refined and shaped into who he has called you to be. Discipline must be balanced with grace. While God calls us to discipline ourselves, He doesn't expect us to do it in our own strength. The Holy Spirit is our helper.

Philippians 2:13

For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. God works in us to will and to act according to His purpose. So, don't grow weary in practicing spiritual discipline. Stay consistent, and in due time, you will see the results. God is faithful to reward those who diligently seek Him.

Confessions:

The spirit of God works with me always

My humanity is made perfect by His Spirit

I'm the workmanship of God I'm created unto good works believer can be consistent. The spirit of God helps the believer stay consistent.

John 14:26 26

But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

1 Corinthians 6:17

But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

As a believer, the spirit of God is working with you. He has come to help your humanity, weaknesses, desires, and imperfections. God created you to depend on His Spirit. Therefore, you can always rely on the Spirit of God.

Ephesians 2:10

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

As a believer, you are created unto good works, so you can always be consistent. Therefore, you do not have to focus on your weaknesses or bad habits. Instead, you should focus on what God says about you.

2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

You are a new creature in Christ! See yourself as someone who is born again, a new creation, and in the light of how God has made you.

Ephesians 2:8

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

You can be consistent and have a consistent life. Since you are saved by the faith and grace of God, your entire life is built on that faith. You have a supernatural life of faith as a believer. Therefore, regardless of how you are currently doing in your walk with God, you must always believe that you will get it right.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE CONSISTENT?

To be consistent is like maintaining a steady pace in a foot race from the beginning to the end. Consistency requires a commitment to doing what you have to do, whether you feel like it or not. As a believer, you should stay consistent in spiritual activities such as prayer, feeding on the word, evangelism, and attending services at your local church.

Hebrews 12:1-2

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,
2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Jesus is our perfect example of consistency, to whom we must always look to keep running our race. He was consistent from the beginning to the end of his life on Earth. The life of Jesus shows the believer what it means to walk in the light of the word.

Luke 3:21

Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, He started his ministry with prayer.

Matthew 26:36-37

Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

He was still praying at the end of his ministry. This means that Jesus was consistent with his prayer life.

WAYS TO STAY CONSISTENT

1. Prayer and fasting

The best way to stay consistent is by praying. A praying man does not give up. Anything that will make you not pray is a distraction. You must guard your prayer life with jealousy because Satan will do anything to stop it. In the place of prayer, you will pick up God's strength and his help, leading you to fulfill God's plan and ultimately stay consistent.

2. Speaking the word of God

Joshua 1:8

This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

Speaking the word of God often will allow you to stay consistent. Even when situations in your life are not going how they ought, learn to stay speaking God's word. Learn to always say:

I'm consistent in all I do.
I am consistently consistent
I'm consistent with my prayer life.
I'm consistent in fasting.
I'm consistent with the word
I'm consistent with preaching

3. Being resolute

Jesus never considered anything contrary to what he was going to do.

John 6:15

When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

Jesus kept His focus. When the people attempted to make Him a king, he knew it was not in God's plan and walked away. Always know what God's plan is for your life and be ready to walk away from what is a distraction. Understand that you cannot do everything on this Earth.

3. Maintain supernatural relationships

Jesus never kept any relationship that made it hard for him to obey God.

1 Corinthians 15:33

Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. Jesus was always found working with his disciples, who helped him fulfill God's plan on Earth.

Man is a product of influence. Be mindful not to move with the wrong company lest you start behaving wrongly.

2 Timothy 3:10-11

But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,
11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

Paul and Timothy had a supernatural relationship. Supernatural relationships are one of the ways we fulfill God's plan for our lives.. The moment you realize that a certain relationship hinders you from properly serving God, that is the right time to fly away. People who deserve your attention and commitment are those who will help you fulfill God's plan for your life

4. Stay in the spirit

Zechariah 4:6

Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

You must always remember that your walk with God is by the Spirit and not by the flesh.

2 Corinthians 4:7

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

The excellence of God's power that works with you is of God. It's therefore not by your power that you serve God effectively and consistently.

Hebrews 12:11

Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

To stay consistent, you have to discipline yourself. Spiritual discipline can be tough and is not always enjoyable. Many times, it may not bring immediate results. But just like physical exercise strengthens the body over time, spiritual discipline shapes your spirit and produces lasting fruit. Discipline may be painful in the moment, but in the end, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who submit to it.

BENEFITS OF CONSISTENT SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINE

1. It builds resilience

Life is full of challenges, but when you are rooted in spiritual practices, you are better equipped to handle those difficulties. When trials come, you won't panic or lose faith because you've built a strong foundation through prayer, fasting, and the Word. Discipline trains you to stand firm.

2. It gives you clarity and focus

In a world full of distractions and noise, it's easy to lose sight of God's purpose for your life. However, a regular practice of prayer and meditation on God's word will help you stay aligned with his will. The more you spend time with God, the clearer his voice will become to you. You will start recognizing His guidance in your decisions and your daily walk.
